

SASSIRIKA CERAMICS

HAND - CRAFTED SHRINE SETS

Perfect gifts for special occasions - available as whole sets and individual pieces

Why choose Sassirika Ceramics?

If you're looking for a special gift for yourself, a friend, or even your Buddhist centre, you can be sure that buying something from my collection will guarantee uniqueness. Most pieces start off thrown on a potter's wheel. They are then hand decorated and finished with glazes I make myself. I create everything from my studio in North London using materials from UK suppliers.

Shrine sets

I hand-make beautiful, high-quality shrine sets, also available as individual pieces. Most items available on the market are mass-produced in the Tibetan style. Browse the catalogue for details of my porcelain and stoneware ranges.

Customer testimonials

Taravandana's Green Tara shrine

"I'm really enjoying the beautiful shrine set. It is beautifully made, fine, elegant and yet quite earthy. It brings my Green Tara shrine alive" Taravandana

The shrine set items are "well crafted, have an integrity to their design and yet possess a uniqueness. They are very pleasing to look at and add so much to the focal point of the weekly meeting." Harshaprabha, Chelmsford Buddhist Group

"I now have a distinctive and unique ceramic shrine set that has brought a real aesthetic sense to my shrine to Amida Buddha. Thank you Sassirika!" Saccanama

COMMISSIONS

I am available for commissions if you'd like a whole shrine set or particular items for your Buddhist Centre, local Buddhist/meditation group, or your own personal shrine. Whether you have a clear idea of what you need or would like to me to help create some ideas, I can collaborate with you to produce pieces or sets that are just right for your shrine.

We can discuss ideas about size, colour, texture, shapes based on your current shrine and shrine room. Just send me a few photos and we can get the ball rolling.

Prices vary depending on scope of commission including choice of clay. Pieces made from unique and finite Bhante clay add greater value which is reflected in the pricing. Please see my website to find out about Bhante clay.

COMMISSIONS

In 2017, I was commissioned by Stockholm Buddhist Centre, Sweden to make a set of bowls for their new shrine room.

"We asked Sassirika to make us a set of shrine bowls for the Stockholm Buddhist Centre. For us it wasn't only about the end product, but also the way those bowls would come into being. That they were being made for us with love and attention. That as Sassirika was making them, she would have in mind their spiritual and symbolic significance. What we received weren't just beautiful objects, but ritual objects, already imbued with meaning." Vajradarshini

Prices vary depending on scope of commission.

COMMISSIONS

In 2020, I was commissioned by the London Buddhist Centre, London to make a set of bowls for their main shrine room.

"We haven't had any shrine bowls for years and the idea of having a set from Bhante's burial site felt very auspicious. The bowls have added so much to the London Buddhist Centre shrine room - a tribute to Bhante and to the work of the LBC. Sassirika's made them with such delicacy and devotion. They positively glow!" Maitreyabandhu
